

Integrative Mental Health for You

IMHU is a not for profit charitable organization. We have become self-sustaining based on money we receive for course registrations and presentations. As a result, we do not depend on any advertisers on our site to make ends meet and so we remain independent. We would like to continue on in this way.

We also understand that many people drawn to the information we make available are short on funds as a result of stressful circumstances. When we can, we offer partial scholarships.

If you want to apply for a partial scholarship please send us:

1. Your name
2. Where you are located (city, state, country)
3. What you want to use the information in the course for (e.g. personal assistance, improving peer support of others, etc.)
4. How much you feel you can pay
5. At what time (s) you will be available to pay

Please address your query to info@IMHU.org

Subject line: "Scholarship request"

We do not have time to read very long letters so please be relatively brief.

We try to answer these queries within 24 hours on business days.

We are not set up to easily offer an installment plan.

We do take most credit cards and use Paypal,

Paypal does offer plans in the USA for US citizens to pay over time.

If you are in a position to offer money for scholarships for others: please go to our donation page: IMHU.org/donation.

Thank you for your attention,

Emma Bragdon, PhD.
